Ohio Valley/Next Level Beach is joining forces this winter at the newly built 6 indoor sand court Field House facility at Flannagan's in Dublin to offer the best beach volleyball training in Mid-America

The Program

Ohio Valley Beach Director Rob Long Began the program in 2012 in response to Women's Beach Volleyball Being Added as a Collegiate Women's Sport. Fast forward to 2017, beach volleyball is the fastest growing collegiate women's sport of all time and Ohio Valley/Next Level Beach has garnished 9 Open National Championships and has nearly 20 athletes currently committed to play D1 collegiate Beach Volleyball.

The Training

The club training model puts one coach and no more than 8 athletes to a court in order to get very personalized coached reps. The training is very fast paced to maximize the number of touches per practice. The training will challenge the athletes from a skill perspective as well as an intellectual and fitness perspective. Training courts are separated by skill level not age group. We want everyone to train to their peak potential.

The Ohio Valley/Next Level Beach Volleyball Program Is for those athletes that desire to take their game to the Next Level of their volleyball progression. If you feel like you are ready to be take on that challenge , then come and tryout for a spot in the NEXT LEVEL program.
